YWCA Southeast Wisconsin Welcomes Three New Board Members

Milwaukee, WI, August 18, 2021 – YWCA Southeast Wisconsin announced today the election of three new Board members. Jomarie Coloriano, Bobby Griffin III, and Brigitte Hyler Richerson have all been elected to a three-year term.

Jomarie Coloriano leads student support in the Multicultural Program at Gateway Technical College and also serves as an adjunct instructor at the College. Originally from Milwaukee, she now makes her home in Racine where she is also the co-founder of Racine Women for Racial Justice. Ms. Coloriano is a graduate of UWM and Aurora University.

Bobby Griffin III serves as Chief Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Officer for Rockwell Automation. With over 20 years of corporate HR leadership experience, he has focused on DEI work for more than a decade in a number of industries, including commercial real estate and pharmaceuticals. Mr. Griffin is a graduate of Abilene Christian University and University of North Texas.

Brigitte Hyler Richerson is an Organizational Development Program Manager with Advocate Aurora Health Care and has over ten years of experience in talent development. An active member of the community, she is a member of Professional Dimensions, CultureCon, and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Ms. Hyler Richerson is a graduate of Alverno College and Cardinal Stritch University.

In welcoming the new members, YWCA SEW Board Chair Lindsey Davis noted, “A truly extraordinary partnership of Board, executive leadership and committed staff is YWCA Southeast Wisconsin’s recipe for meeting the needs of our community. As our Board of Directors grows, we are well-poised to move our bold mission forward even more significantly.”

About YWCA Southeast Wisconsin

As part of a national network of 200+ affiliates with a bold mission to eliminate racism and empower women, YWCA SEW’s work serves 10,000+ individuals annually, equipping and challenging our community to commit itself to peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. Through its distinctive lens focused on economic social determinants of health, YWCA SEW offers an array of interconnected empowerment and racial justice/gender equity programming and services for women and their families. YWCA SEW’s vision for the region: a thriving, inclusive, and just Southeast Wisconsin defined by racial and gender equity as the foundation for healthy communities. Visit www.ywcasew.org
